LOCAL BREVITIES.

Iron county's wheat crop is about 75,000 bushels.
A steam "holster" is being put up on Shepherd Mountain.
The larger fruits, including the succulent watermelon, are coming into market.
The memory of man runneth not to the time of such glorious summer weather.
George Schultz has put up a new horse-rack, which it is good for strong if isn't aesthetic.
Thomson's burro, with his colored keeper astride of him, makes a picture "neat but not gaudy."
The guests at the Arcadia House are being entertained with music extracted from a brand new piano.
The Ironton Manufacturing Company has, to this date, received 1,500 bushels of wheat of the crop of 1882.
James Buford, Collector for six years, has during that time, traveled at least 30,000 miles—all on horseback.
The Great Show of the West gave two very fine parades last Thursday and Friday. In fact, the pageant was superb.
Who did that shooting Sunday night, down on Stout's creek, or thereabouts? Not less than a dozen shots were fired.
Jud. Chambers is manufacturing writinginks—all colors—which he guarantees to be as good as Arnold's, or any other kind.
The invitations to the Grand Ball at the Academy of Music on the 3d prox. have been issued, and all the arrangements are perfected.
Addie Markham distributed the first watermelons of the season to our citizens last Thursday. They were brought from Scott county.
Bishop Robertson will come down and hold services in St. Paul's church some time in September. The exact date will be given hereafter.
The Academy of Music is now fully furnished with seats. The benches for the gallery were put in Monday, by M. B. and Chas.
W. Tetwiler.
C. C. Russell is putting up on his farm, a dwelling 20x32, with an L 14x16. It is well planned, and when finished will be neat and comfortable.
We hear that Mr. H. R. Charlton, traindispatcher at Little Rock, is about to resign his position, accepting in lieu thereof the office at Piedmont.
The Arcadia Accommodation is an exceeding great convenience to people who inhabit this section, and we are glad to know that it is a paying venture.
The Register job-office has just printed and bound 4,000 tax-receipts for the Collector, and we guarantee it to be as neat a job as can be done in the city.
Wheat is now selling at eighty-five cents a bushel, with a corresponding drop in flour and bran. Those having live-stock of either kind to feed, are thankful.

The proceedings of the Democratic Mass Meeting held at the courthouse last Wednesday, and the call for the Senatorial Convention, will be found on the first page.
The Pilot Knob and Graniteville Base Ball Clubs had a game at the Knob last Sunday.
This time the Pilot Knob boys "flaxed out" their neighbors, the score standing 21 to 12.
Green corn is staying in detached messes, and in a week or so "roastin'-ears" will be plentiful as buckwheat cakes and sausages in winter—we wish it was winter now!
The McCabe mare smashed a buggy for her present owner, Mr. Killalee, last Monday morning. Tally two! She's a "daisy," but she don't take kindly to vehicles, and that's a fact.
Our printer, who has been rampaging over various States east of the Mississippi for the past six weeks, will probably return home to-day. We have had a varied experience during his absence.
We ate our first 1882 watermelon last Sunday. It may not have been as previous as some other body's melon, but it was fully as good as any that ever grew, and the donor will please accept our thanks.
Somebody says August will be hot and dry —to vindicate the "general average theory," we presume. In this instance the weather-clerk can't get the better of us, for we've secured the good end in advance.
We understand Mr. P. Twomey, of Marble Creek, has announced his determination to run for the legislature on an Independent Ticket. Mr. T. is a good man, but he'll never knock the persimmons with that pole.
Delano's hedge is nearly out of leading-strings, and we anticipate the disappearance of the unsightly board fence behind it at an early day. We wish we could say the same inference to other places on Main street.
The Bonanza has a fine landscape painting on view—free to all. It is the chef d'oeuvre of Mons. Guillaume Byrands, one of the most famous artists aesthetes of our time, and thrills the beholder with awe and admiration.
Sill, there's nothing like leather.
Master Augustus Hinehey, aged 8 years, reads and writes "short-hand" (Pitman's method) as readily as most people do the ordinary long-hand. He is a native of Arcadia Valley, and taught by his father, the artist.
Can any of our exchanges produce his equal in this respect?
Coach dogs are somewhat vicious when on duty, and will bear precaution. Two instances occurred last week wherein two little boys were badly scared and had their Sunday suits somewhat damaged from lack of caution in approaching spotted canines which were out with family carriages.
The Bonanza lost a Japanese umbrella last Wednesday. It was stuck in the rack in front of the store, "for show," and some person came along and kidnapped it while the clerks were engaged with a room-full of customers.
We advise the Bonanza man to put combination locks on his show goods.
Ricke, the butcher, had an undamaging runaway last Saturday morning. He left his rig unhitched in the street while he carried a roast into the dwelling of a customer, and the horse started for home. Fortunately, some people on the street headed off the animal before he got under full headway.
If the Congressional Committee for the Tenth District wants to do something nice for the men who will nominate our next Congressman—and we know it does—let it call the Convention to meet at Ironton. Here the heat of summer is tempered with cool mountain breezes, the scenery is delightful, our people are hospitable, and every prospect pleases.
Last Sunday Rev. Wright was at Poplar Bluff, and Judge Russell as lay reader presented an excellent sermon to the Presbyterian congregation, preached by D. L. Moody in London. Judge Russell has an extensive collection of very instructive religious reading, and enters into the spirit of what he reads, so that those who attend his readings may feel sure of hearing a sermon by some one of the very best minds of our time, and that the discourse will be well rendered.
Sheriff Fletcher isn't elated as much as he ought to be, according to our notion of the fitness of things. Here he has just been nominated for the position of Sheriff and Collector, without opposition, and about the same time he is made the father of a fine 10-lb. girl, and yet the happy recipient of these blessings goes around among his fellow-citizens as unconcerned as he can be. Are both, or is either, of these things of too common occurrence with him to cause excitement?
We can't understand it.
Rev. J. W. Swift will hold services at the Baptist Church in Ironton, on Sunday, July 29th. All are cordially invited.
Three hundred invitations to the Second Grand Ball of the Academy of music Company have been issued, and all the indications point to its being a "big thing." A miner on Pilot Knob, while barring down in one of the tunnels last Friday, had his left leg badly crushed by a piece of falling ore. Although amputation is not necessary, he will be laid up for several weeks.
We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to a ball at Bonne Terre, Friday evening, July 28th, under the auspices of the B. T. B. B.
We know by the committees it will be a success, and regret very much but—well, we can't attend.
Mrs. D. A. Greason has commenced a 16x 28 addition to the building occupied by Jud.
Chambers on Main street. Mr. C. will use the rear room as an Oyster Saloon, and the front as a News Depot and Stationery and Book Store.
Andy Wallis, Esq., near Des Arc, has just received a new $800 thrasher, of Belleville manufacture. He will thresh wheat for all in that section who desire his services, and, as he has the latest improved machine, will give satisfaction.
The Annual Convention of the Iron County Sunday School Association will be held at the Presbyterian Church, in Ironton, on Wednesday, the 2d day of August, beginning at 10 A. M.
As every Sunday School worker is considered a member, a large attendance is expected.
By Order of the Executive Committee.
S. G. FAIRCHILD, Secretary.

Work at the Granite Quarry is lively, and there appears to be a general boom out there. Rumor says that Mr. Allen will shortly put up a hotel for general accommodation, and that he is about to change the gauge of the track connecting with the I. M. R. R. to the standard width.
Wm. Trauernicht, Esq., merchant tailor of Middlebrook, has established a branch house in Piedmont. The new establishment is under charge of Messrs. Herman Trauernicht and F. Schwab, and we predict it will prove a success. Mr. Trauernicht is a wide-awake business man, and his place at Middlebrook has achieved a reputation second to none in Southeast Missouri. We expect a good account of his new venture.
DIED—At the residence of Henry Rapp, in Ironton, on Monday, July 24th, 1882, AR-THUR, infant son of Henry and Matilda Rapp, aged just one year.
The anniversary of the child's entrance into this world witnesses the advent of his pure, sweet spirit into those heavenly realms where disease and pain are unknown. The bereaved parents have our heartfelt sympathy for their bereavement.
A colored citizen tendered to the proprietor of the Blue Store last Monday a $20 certificate for Missouri Defense Bonds, in payment for some articles purchased. The darky evidently thought it was good money, and was considerably taken down when told that that bill may have answered very well in certain localities twenty years or so ago, but was not N. G. now. The scrip was fairly executed, and might deceive an ignorant person unused to handling greenbacks. It was printed by Keatinge & Ball, Columbia S. C.
George Carter while trying a little grey mare belonging to Mr. McCabe, of Reynolds county, last Saturday evening, had a runaway. He hitched the animal in a buggy, although warned that she was not broken to the harness. She went all right until opposite Garner's, when she took a start and ran like a streak of greased lightning. Her driver ran her into Begley's fence which brought her up in short order and tumbled him out on his head. The shafts were broken off, but no further damage was done, if we except a bump or two. The little mare came out without a scratch.
NEW MILL.—T. B. Lowe, Esq., of Des Arc, has purchased a new mill which he will put in on Big Creek during the coming month.
The new mill is a Todd's upper-runner, with one set of burrs, and the power will be given through a Loeffel turbine wheel. It will take the place of his old mill which was originally built by Alexander Brooks, and has been running for thirty years—twelve under Mr. L.'s own supervision. The new mill will grind from ten to twelve bushels of wheat per hour, and will be furnished with a set of burrs for grinding corn. It will be run both as merchant and custom mill, and as Mr. L. is an experienced miller, with his new machinery he will give the best of satisfaction.
BRUTAL ASSAULT.—Last Wednesday, as Geo. Spitzmiller, of Pilot Knob, was about to enter his front gate at noon, he was set upon by one Mike Zimmer, knocked down, and beaten severely. After he fell, Zimmer jumped upon him, and kicked him in the side, breaking two ribs and inflicting other ugly injuries. At Spitzmiller's complaint, the assailant was arrested and tried before Judge Dinger, who after the hearing of the testimony on both sides, mulcted him to the extent of about twenty-four dollars. Then Zimmer had George arrested for an alleged disturbance of the peace, who, rather than go to the expense of fighting the charge, pleaded guilty, or, rather at last accounts had about decided to do so, although he claims to be entirely innocent thereof.

Murderous Assault.

Last Sunday afternoon at Middlebrook occurred another of those affairs for which that village has achieved an unenviable notoriety. A large crowd had come down from Iron Mountain, and the usual quantities of whiskey and beer were consumed. In due time several parties were spilling for a fight, and the usual preliminaries being gone through with, the fight came round. Two brothers named John and Jeff. Brooks, and some other parties whose names we have not been able to get, collided, when one James Dewire stepped between the combatants and tried to quiet them. Thereupon the Brooks turned upon him, and he came out with seven or eight cuts, inflicted with a knife, which the doctor says are bound to result fatally. In fact, our informant says De-wire was literally "cut to pieces." He was removed to Iron Mountain, and lies there at this writing, alive, but with no chance for recovery.
After the rencontre, the crowd dispersed, all save the Brooks boys, who remained until after nightfall, amusing themselves by throwing stones at peaceable passers-by, and in divers other innocent diversions.
Several persons were injured by the flying missiles, but that we take no account of: the boys must be amused, and what is a broken arm or leg, or a smashed figure-head that it should stand in the way of enjoyment?
Don't our Middlebrook friends think that it is about time that this Sunday business end? Haven't they themselves had enough of it? What with indictments and fines and affrays, the record of that little village for the past few years is by no means a pleasant one to contemplate, and we suggest that hereafter all its citizens try the effect of squarely living up to the requirements of the law they have so persistently violated from time immemorial. Putting aside the miseries, the heartburnings, the disgraces attendant upon those Sunday orgies, has the keeping open of saloons on Sunday paid the proprietors in dollars and cents? We believe it has "cost more than it has come to," but whether so or not, the law ought to be so enforced as to compel them to abide its requirements. Pilot Knob saloon men have voluntarily agreed to close their doors on Sunday; Ironton liquor dealers long since adopted the rife; and now let Middlebrook and every other town follow their example.
If they don't, then pop the law to them for all it is worth.
STILL A BOOMING!—Ice Cream 5 cents a dish. Quick sales and small profits. I can afford to sell at those figures, for my customers have been so kind in their liberal patronage not only this season but those heretofore, that I can almost afford to give it to them the remainder of the season. So come one, come all! I have plenty of Ice-cream at $1.50 per 100 lbs.
R. HOTSON.

Personal.

Dr. E. May, of Annapolis, was in town Saturday.
Mr. Frank Delano spent Sunday with his folks here.
Miss Alice Collier, of Bismarck, was in Ironton Saturday.
Miss Mattie Miller returned to her home in St. Louis Monday.
Mrs. T. Lopez and Adele left Tuesday for St. Louis.
Mr. Carver and family, of St. Louis county, are visiting Mrs. Crafton.
Mrs. Anna Smith and Master Noble have returned to their home in St. Louis.
Miss Susie Hill, of Bonne Terre, after a visit of several weeks to friends in the Valley left for her home Monday.
Dr. Bob Baird after spending a week here with relatives has returned to Dunklin county.
Mr. Geo. Lopez spent last week in Piedmont helping put their store, at that place, in running order.
Mrs. Brierton and daughter, Miss Nellie, of Iron Mountain, spent the day in Ironton last Wednesday the guest of Mrs. B. Zwart.
Misses Lizzie May and Hattie Skinner, both of Butler county, are expected the latter part of the week on a visit to Mrs. Geo. Crumb.
Mr. Will Toney, of Piedmont, was in town Sunday. He left Monday accompanied by his wife.
Miss Ella Lang who has been visiting friends here for several weeks past leaves to-day (Wednesday), for her home in Farmington.
Mrs. Fred Sisley, of Battle Creek, Mich., and Mrs. M. A. Haughey, of Carrollton, Mo., were called here last week by the illness of their mother, Mrs. House, who was lying very low. At present we are glad to learn that she is convalescent.
Miss McDonald, of Piedmont, was visiting Mrs. J. F. T. Edwards.
Mr. Jas. Lindsay, Jr., was in town Tuesday shaking hands with his friends.
Gen. John Turner's family, of St. Louis, are summering at "The Greason Farm."

Pilot Knob Clippings.

Hornets never sting dead men. So we have heard.
The large bridge between the dwelling of Mr. Kath and that of Mr. Richter fell into the creek last week.
Miss Flavia Hayden, who has for some years been sojourning in the State of California, returned a few days since to spend the summer with her mother and sisters. Her many friends are glad to see her.
Miss Nettie Sutherland, of Caledonia, and one of the late graduates of Caledonia College, was visiting Mrs. Jesse McFarland and other friends here last week.
Mr. Albert Gockel, one of Jno. Schwab's young clerks, happened to a severe accident last week. Like many of our boys, he formed the habit of jumping upon running cars.
The result is a badly mashed foot that will be many weeks recovering.
Mr. Babcock, well known to our people as one of our boss operators, was in town last week. He was seen about town buying pargorie, rattle boxes, &c., and upon inquiry it was found that he had sought another kind of rattle. Is it John or Mary, which?
Our town experienced a quiet Sabbath at the close of last week. The business houses of Front Street were all closed. Two or three men were known to be drinking, but Front Street insists that they did not get it there.
J. Kling went to the city or somewhere else and has not returned yet; we don't know his business, but it is reported that he will soon sell his stock and go elsewhere.
The Union Sabbath School had an attendance of 71 last Sunday, an increase of 12 over the previous Sunday.
We are informed that Dr. G. W. Farrar, Jr., has been appointed physician for the Ore and Steel Company of this place. The young doctor is well qualified, tends strictly to business, and is deserving the confidence imposed.
We hear of a very severe stabbing affray at Middlebrook, Sunday. One Jas. Dwyer was dangerously cut by one Jeff. Brooks. They were said to be drinking, but then we suppose not, for we presume one could not get whiskey at Middlebrook on Sunday?
The new Lodge of Ancient Order of United Workmen lately organized at the Knob, holds its regular meetings at Odd Fellow's Hall, Friday evening of each week.
Our barber has bought another barber's chair and will put it to use as soon as he finds an apprentice. Let the boys apply.
Your itemizer has been so abused, maligned and connived against by designing individuals, during the past week that he has been afraid to open his mouth. What death is worse than to be scared to death?
CITIZEN.

Dr. Goulding of your town was at the Knob last Monday, and was terribly surprised to see a rattlesnake, as he was in the act of mounting his horse.
Whistling is a favorite pastime in this burg, and some of our young ladies are experts at it.
Mr. Julius Kling and better-half returned home last Monday.
Our barber has gone huckleberrying, and the bearded man solemnly awaits his return.
August Boss, of Bismarck, was in town last Monday.
Rumor says there is to be a wedding shortly. Guess who?
No. 4 has been considerably behind time during the past week.
The haying season is here. The darkey puts in time and a half. He singeth, as if happy.
A travelling watchmaker has been making his home with us for several days.

A Vexed Clergyman.

Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing, making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easy can all this be avoided by simply using Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial Bottles given away at the Pilot Knob Drug Store. 2

TO TAX-PAYERS.—The tax-books of the city of Ironton are now in the hands of the Collector, and tax-payers are hereby notified to "come down" with their quota of dollars immediately, if not sooner. There are some delinquent taxes which the parties interested had best settle ere it is too late. A number of polls still remain unpaid. Pay up, taxpayers! Now is the accepted and acceptable time.
